Foreword

The sands of time are ever shifting. With the passing of time we see many changes in our lives. For some, high school days are ending; for others, they are just beginning. The 1965 Newcosean records many memorable events of the 1964-1965 school year. It is your book filled with your memories. We, the Newcosean staff, hope that in the years to come you will look upon this book's pages and recall your days at Newcomerstown High School.

Mr. Roeder, our superintendent, is a graduate of Lima Central High School. He received his A.B. degree from Manchester College and his M.A. degree from Ohio State University. His duties are numerous and exacting. He acts as chief executive officer of the board of education and attends all board meetings. He has charge of the administration and supervision of the school system, and is the professional leader of the board and the teaching staff. He presents to the board such information as is needed in the formation of school policies, recommends the employment, or dismissal of teachers, and assigns salaries to teachers on the basis of the salary schedule adopted by the board.

L. to R.: Doris Ross, Clerk, Virgil Ervin, Annabelle Stocker, Carl Krebs Jr., Thomas Addy, and Roger George.

Our board of education spends endless hours of concentrated effort to maintain a successful school system for us. Included among their many duties are the hiring of teachers and personnel, the administration of the school budget, setting up the school calendar, and securing and maintaining equipment, buildings, and grounds. We, students of N.H.S., take this opportunity to express our gratitude for their tireless endeavors.

Claude Hinds, our principal, is a graduate of Newcomerstown High School and Muskingum College with a B.S. degree. He has also done graduate work at Ohio State University. His responsibilities as Principal are many and varied. Students with a wide range of interests and abilities must be provided with an opportunity to obtain good education. He must provide the students with this opportunity. He gives teachers and parents assistance in properly guiding students. Another one of his duties is to aid former students and citizens in our community to obtain additional education. Also, school activities and athletic events must be supervised by him. He spends many hours each year studying and planning ways to improve our educational system. Mr. Hinds feels that it is a necessity and a pleasure to find time to be a friend to each student.

Clifford Wilson, our assistant principal and guidance counselor, is a graduate of Newcomerstown High School. He received his B.S. degree at Ohio State University and has done graduate work at Xavier University and the University of Indiana. As guidance counselor, Mr. Wilson gives individual advice to students to help them map out their future. He assists in the general administration problems. These include developing and organizing of the curriculum, preparation of necessary administrative reports, assists in the co-ordination of a calendar of events, acts as adviser to the Student Council, and has sole power in the absence of the principal. But most important, Mr. Wilson is a personal friend to every student in N.H.S.

In rain, sleet, and snow
We'll still be on the go.
Honest, we're no one's fool
When we say—
We'll get those kids to school"

Rub-a-dub-dub
We rub and scrub,
To keep the school so
neat and clean,
We work to give it
All a sheen.

Mrs. Don Marhover Mrs. Chester Leonard Mrs. Russell Marquand

Feed 400 students!?? Sounds fantastic doesn't it! Yet these ladies: Mrs. Marhover, Mrs. Leonard, and Mrs. Marquand accomplish this feat five days a week! From N.H.S. many thanks to a most successful kitchen staff.

The year was in its yellowing time, and the face of Nature a study in old gold.

The Trojan football squad of Newcomerstown High School finished their third winning season in a row under head coach Cliff Wilson. The Trojans bowed to a tough Philo team in the opener by a score of 18-6. A recalled touchdown cost N.H.S. a win in the 6-6 tie with Tri-Way. The Trojans were overpowered by Dover St. Joseph by a narrow 22-20 margin and bowed to Uhrichsville 28-18 before the winning began. The Trojan eleven marched to victory over traditional rivals Zanesville Rosecrans 45-22. The following week the gridders stopped an overrated Three Rivers team 22-14, and to put the cap on the N.H.S. Homecoming, mauled Shenandoah 50-24. N.H.S. was downed by a hefty Cadiz squad 28-14, but rebounded for a romp over Meadowbrook by 50-8. In the last and decisive game, the squad squeaked by Norwayne in a 14-8 thriller to end the season with a 5-4-1 record.

The addition of Richard Schafer and Loverne Marlatt as assistant varsity coaches proved to be a valuable asset to the team's success. The coaching staff also worked hard to increase the depth of the Trojan squad, which is indicated by the 10 lettermen who will return next season.

Senior halfback Randy Osler is pictured in his usual form—alone in the open and headed for paydirt.

Below, a Shenandoah back is stopped cold by a Trojan defensive trio of Kent Collins, Denny Berger, and Ray McFadden.

The Trojan defensive secondary moves—linebacker Jim Thomas gets a hand on a Shenandoah back as Jim Moner moves in for the finishing blow.

Practice makes perfect—at left, the Trojan line hits the sled at a practice session under the direction of coaches Shafer, Wilson, and Marlatt.

Managers—(l. to r.) Kim Ferrell, Eric Parks, Craig Kees

Dr. Henry Schrickel

Whether it was at the practice field, in the locker room, or at the games, "Doc" Schrickel was usually nearby to offer his help when it was needed most. The number of times he has put a back into place during a game, whether at home or away, or checked a swollen ankle in the locker room afterward, or listened to complaints and symptoms on the practice field, all without charge, are innumerable. On Saturdays after games, he always managed to work ailing players into his crowded office schedule. To Doctor Schrickel the entire squad offers its sincerest thanks.

Our thanks also go to the Ourant Funeral Home and the Addy Funeral Home for their ambulance service at home games. The attendance and willingness to help at home games of Dr. Agricola, Dr. McCulley, and Dr. Saturski is also appreciated by the 1964-65 football squad.

This hard-working, high-spirited group of girls, led by their advisor, Miss Batsel, not only led the Trojan cheering section at our athletic events, but also performed various other activities. These duties included selling booster ribbons before each game, attending the Kent State University Cheerleader Workshop, and supervising dances. Their weekly pep rallies built school spirit with stunts and skits.

Perhaps someone has died? At least there is a funeral!

Wait, I know more than I have told!! You can't hang an innocent man!

These little children have entered the wonderful world of imagination.

November 16, 1964 those dramatically inclined students of Newcomerstown High School produced Paul Kester's adaptation of Mark Twain's "Tom Sawyer" under the direction of Mrs. Ralph Portz, teacher and director of our speech and dramatic departments. They presented once again that immortal world of childhood pranks and problems so dear to the hearts of young and old alike. On the afternoon of the day of the performance, students from the grade schools were permitted to view the play.

The Newcomerstown High School Trojan Band is celebrating its 25th Anniversary this year. The band had its first season in the school year 1939-1940 under the direction of Mr. Jack Beatty of Coshocton. There were ninety-seven students, one drum majorette, and two twirlers participating. The first uniforms of white trousers and shirts were purchased by the students themselves. In 1940 the band mothers bought the first regular uniforms.

This year we are proud to exhibit our progressive Trojan band under the direction of Mr. Joe Grecco and his assistant Mr. Fred Riley. They added color to the football season by their performances at half-time. An annual spring concert was also presented.

CLASS YELL

We are faithful,
Great we'll be,
We're the class of '70!

CLASS HISTORY

We, the seventh graders, were all excited for September 8, 1964 to arrive, since it was the first day of our first year in the high school. We had heard all sorts of rumors, but to us none of them were true. They told us how strict the teachers were and how rough and hard the classes.

We sold a few things during the year. We held fudge sales on Wednesdays. We sold big tote bags in December.

We had our first class party at the beginning of the second semester. It was fun for everyone who attended.

We hope the class of "70" will have success in our future years at N.H.S. We want our high school to have the things we think a good high school needs and we want to better our lives.

We want to wish the class of '65 the best of luck in the future.

CLASS YELL

We will rise;
We will shine;
We're the class of '69

CLASS HISTORY

When we entered junior high school in 1963, the class of '69 was in a state of confusion for the first few days. This year though, we knew what to expect, and were a little more organized. We planned two class parties, one of which was October 19 in the high school auditorium. Instead of taking money from the treasury, each person who attended gave one dime.

Our money-making project was fudge selling. We took turns bringing fudge on Fridays and selling it at the trophy case. Those who didn't want to bring fudge, brought 50c.

As we underclassmen move steadily forward until we become the uppermost classmen, we will be chanting the phrase:

"We will rise; we will shine; we're the class of '69."

CLASS HISTORY

Our class has had a lot of fun in the three years that we have been in N.H.S. This year we had a Halloween Party in the auditorium.

This fun has been somewhat counteracted by the teasing we got this year for being freshmen, but we always teased back that our class of 129 is the largest in the school.

Many students have high hopes for the scholarship tests, their Science Fair exhibits, and the sophomores having the largest class next year. So we have much to look forward to, as well as much history to remember.

Our class advisors, to whom we are very thankful for their help and advice, are Mr. Heck, Mr. Marlatt, Mrs. Marshall, and Mrs. Swigert.

CLASS YELL

'67 is our aim
We want victory
We want fame

CLASS HISTORY

It all began back in 1961 when the pea-green class of '67 was dumped into the rather unwilling lap of Newcomerstown High School. Since then, however, we have proven ourselves worthy of admiration. Already we have begun to leave great footprints on the sands of time, although across the minds of our teachers we've just managed to make muddy little tracks.

We have kept ourselves entertained with several class parties, one in the Youth Center in the seventh grade, and one a backward party in the gym as eighth graders. (And boy! were we backward!) We concluded our eighth grade and Freshman years with picnics at the park.

No one can say the Sophomores aren't an ambitious lot. Since our first few months in the high school, we've worked feverishly to bolster our nominal treasury. We have often sold, or tried to sell fudge. We had a stand at the 1964 Fourth of July celebration and sold Sesqui dolls and Indian-head pennies at Newcomerstown's Sesqui-Centennial Celebration. We even mustered all the energy, red plastic, tissues, and Sophomores we could (not to mention the begrudged but steadfast aid of Mr. Marlatt) and built a float. By virtue of the fact that there were only two floats in its category in the Sesqui-Centennial parade, it won second prize. And now, the balance on hand is . . . well gang, it was a nice try, anyway.

CLASS HISTORY

When we entered Newcomerstown High School, our first big decision as seventh graders was choosing a class yell. Who can forget all the prosperous fudge sales, parties, and victorious athletic accomplishments.

At the beginning of our Freshman year we were faced with choosing our own subjects. This year some of us took two foreign languages: Latin and English??!! For the first time we were allowed to attend social events.

Making our way through the crowded halls, we entered our Sophomore year. We began to be more active in the school activities (detention, clean-up committees, cutting classes, etc.). In our spare time we indulged in such varied activities as studying, homework, and more studying!

Our Junior year (better known as the year of the vanishing dollar) we spent our parents' money for our most prized possessions, our class rings. Then we seriously began to consider making money for the Junior-Senior Prom. Remember all the wet feet at the car washes, selling magazines to our parents, and the window cleaner we sold at Halloween.

We won't forget our years at N.H.S. and we're all looking forward to our Senior Year and the Senior trip.

Varsity Basketball

KNEELING: John Hurst, Bernie Craigo, Denny Ross, Larry Heller. STANDING: Coach Haugh, John Smith, Butch Butler, Craig Wilkin, Rick Vierheller.

This season was the third for coach John Haugh as head coach for Newcomerstown varsity basketball. Although basketball has been somewhat less than perfect at NHS for the past few seasons, the quality of ball played by the cagers has been on a steady increase since Coach Haugh took over the Trojan basketball program in 1962-63.

Coach Bud Hoovler completed his second year as a member of the coaching staff of NHS. As coach of the reserve team, he prepared the players who in the next few years will make up the core of the varsity squad.

Senior Tri-captains: Randy Osler, Larry Heller, and Bernie Craigo

Although the straight won-lost record of 4-15 disguises the fact, the actual scores of the games reveals the true nature of the 1964-1965 season. Most of the games were lost by very slim margins. Despite the record, the NHS cagers played perhaps the best quality of basketball seen in Newcomerstown in many years. The highlight of the season was the 136-104 win over Dover St. Joe which broke six county records.

The Future Homemakers of America is a National organization of girls studying Homemaking in high school as a part of the homemaking program. F.H.A. provides opportunities for students to have additional experiences in planning and carrying out activities related to homemaking. On April 9, they held a tea for the teachers. This year was made successful by earning the award of merit.

In order to receive the State Homemaker's Degree, Fanny had to meet certain qualifications. She had to participate in the State Program of work, grow as an individual, as a member of her home, as a member of her Chapter, and as a member of her school and community. Her final goal was to interpret the homemaking program to other people.

This year marked the beginning of a new facet in student government at N.H.S.—The founding of the student council.

This council was elected by the student body and is controlled by a strict constitution, composed last year by the National Honor Society under the direction of Mr. Hinds, Principal.

The council recently received its charter with the state association of Student Councils, and through this affiliation, will send the new council president, Jim Moner, to the Ohio University Student Council Workshop.

In future years we expect the student council to take a commanding role in the promotion of the true values of student life in our school.

Y-Teens is a women's Christian organization whose goals are to:

(1) Grow as a person

(2) Grow in a friendship with people of all nations, races, and religions

(3) Grow in the knowledge and love of God.

Their motto is "Not by might, nor by power, but by My spirit saith the Lord of hosts."

The Y-teens' program theme for the 1964-1965 school year was "Y's Winning Ways". Some of their year's activities were: Collection of food for the needy at Thanksgiving, collection for UNICEF, the presentation of the Christmas assembly, holding the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance. The Y-teens ended another year by electing and installing new officers.

History

At the meeting of the National Association of Secondary School Principals in Chicago in 1919, the formation of a national honor society was proposed by J. G. Masters, then principal of Central High School in Omaha, Nebraska. A committee was appointed to form a constitution and they adopted the qualities of character, service, leadership, and scholarship as the eligibility requirements. Our chapter of the National Honor Society was formed in 1943 through the efforts of Dana P. Whitmer, then principal of Newcomerstown High School.

Rev. John Little, an alumnus of Newcomerstown High School, was the main speaker at the 23rd annual National Honor Society initiation. He praised the initiates concerning their achievement of the qualities of scholarship, leadership, character, and service.

Friday, February 19, 1965, brought the climax to the Newcosean Sales' Campaign. The high school auditorium was gaily recorated in red and white for the "Sweetheart" dance. Five high school girls, chosen by the students, awaited the decision of those who attended. At 9:30 Miss Linda Hickenbottem received the honor as Newcosean Sweetheart. Another highlight of the evening was the cake walk.

The evening was climaxed; the "Sweetheart" was crowned.

Although not enjoying their best season, this year's baseball team had much desire and did their best. This was their first year in the Scenic Hills Conference. The underclassmen saw plenty of action as there were only four seniors on Coach Hoovler's squad. Next year's team will have the advantage of much experience and should have a good season.

Great support of the team was shown by student attendance at athletic events.

Rick Stork, Joyce Little, and Lester Casterline were the Spelling Bee winners.

There is a serious side to school life.

The 1964-65 Senior Class

SENIOR ADVISORS

Mr. Riffle, Mr. Jarvis, Mrs. Frock, and Mrs. Phillips

Even though we seniors didn't always agree with the decisions of our advisors, we did truly appreciate their help.

The main job of the Senior Class Officers is to plan for the class trip to Washington, D.C. President Ray McFadden, Vice-President Jim Thomas,, Secretary Lois Langell, Social Chairman Shirley Hendershot, Treasurer Tony Getchey, and Social Chairman Denny Ross wait for the bus to arrive.

CLASS SONG

No man is an island, no man stands alone.
Each man's joy is joy to me, each man's grief is my own.
We need one another, so I will defend
Each man as my brother, each man as my friend.

I saw the people gather, I heard the music start.
The song that they were singing is ringing in my heart.

No man is an island, no man stands alone.
Each man's joy is joy to me, each man's grief is my own.
We need one another, so I will defend
Each man as my brother, each man as my friend.

IN MEMORIAM

ARTHUR THOMAS BAUGHMS

Born—April 22, 1947

Died—September 1, 1963

Class History

September, 1959, was an exciting month for the class of 1965. This was the time we entered the high school building as lowly seventh graders. That was a year of adjustment as we rushed down the halls running into big Seniors and worrying about finding our next classes. Our fun for that year consisted of a class party. To raise finances, we sold fudge.

We felt much more grown up the next fall when we came back as eighth graders, already knowing where everything was. Jim Thomas distinguished our class by winning first place in the county in the Eighth Grade Test.

Our Freshman year was quite different from Junior High. Subjects were more difficult and assignments heavier. The extra activities we were then eligible for compensated for the harder work, however. We all became involed in choir, Y-Teens, Hi-Y, F.H.A., and other activities.

In our Sophomore year we started trying in earnest to make money for the prom. Many of us "burned the midnight oil" as we studied five solid subjects.

The Junior year was one of the fullest and most exciting. Receiving our class rings was a big thrill. Naturally, earning money and planning for the prom were hard work, but we enjoyed it. We washed cars, sold lightbulbs, and talked people into subscribing to magazines. All our labor was worth the results, though. On May 8, 1964, we entertained the class of 1964 with a banquet and prom. Our theme, "Ebbtide," was carried out with decorations depicting an underwater scene. Our hard-working parents deserve much of the credit for the success of the prom. The realization that we were Seniors hit us as we made appointments to have our Senior pictures taken.

Our last year together held much fun, but many sad moments, too, as we became more and more aware that the end was drawing near. Homecoming was an escepially happy event for the five lucky girls on the court—Faith Bell, Kathy Gay, Shirley Hendershot, Linda Hickenbottom, and Bev Krebs. The Junior Class entertained us the night of May 7 with a banquet and prom. The gym was beautifully decorated to carry out the theme, "Soft Southern Breeze." It was such a treat to be able to enjoy the prom without having the worry of planning it. The Senior-Faculty basketball game was another fun event, even though we lost.

Events stepped up as the busy year-end approached. Baccalaureate was held on Sunday afternoon, May 23. Then came the class trip to Washington, D.C. Fifty-three members of the class, along with Mr. Riffle and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Ervin enjoyed the four fun-filled days. Who can ever forget singing all the way home? The hilarity with which we had completed the end of the school year was changed abruptly as we prepared for the final march down the steps the night of May 31, 1965. Dr. Ralph A. Young, Dean of Men of Wooster College, spoke to us on the topic, "What Constitutes Success." A special event was the presentation of the first scholarships ever given by the newly-organized Citizens' Scohlarship Foundation. Mr. John Hackenbracht presented awards to Eileen Hafer, David Hazlett, Lois Langell, Ray McFadden, Gordon Moore, Richie Thomson, David Vogel.

As we go out into the world, some of us to prepare for our life's work, others to begin it, we experience mixed emotions. Along with the feeling of pride in having completed high school, there is a feeling of uncertainty about the future. Above all, we feel gratitude to our parents, teachers, administration, and other school personnel for having prepared us for the next steps in our lives.

All of these pictures go on that page?

Faith Bell, Editor, plans the book in advance so that everyone on the staff knows the over-all picture of it. She also supervises the layout.

Lois Langell, Senior and Underclass Editor, collected information for her part in the making of the book.

Fanny Truex and Dave Vogel, the Organization and Activities Editors. They prepared final copy to record the many events at N.H.S. during the school year.

Work! Work! Work! When do we rest?

But Gordon, I know we won that game!

Jim Thomas and Gordon Moore, Sports Editors, prepared the sports pages for final copy.

Our Art Editor, Paul Eshelman, contributed drawings for our division pages.

This pen won't draw straight lines!

Mrs. Portz, Advisor, supervises the production of a well-balanced yearbook. She is always ready with helpful hints.

The Business Manager conducted the sales campaign and watched over the bookkeeping and business records. This also meant collecting and distributing the money. Dave Hazlett had this responsibility.

Where would the yearbook be without money? Bev Krebs, Advertising Editor, managed the solicitation of ads from the business men.

It must be the scales!!!

That is my what??

Tony Getchey and Alan Woods aided our photographer, Jerry Rooker who is from Osborne Studio. They covered school events and therefore 1965 has been recorded.

What would we have done without the aid of our typists, Kathy Gay and Olive Craigo? Our deadlines were met because they finished their jobs on time.

Just 135 pages to go!

Senior Class Trip

FRONT ROW: Doreen Herbert, Bonnie Shepherd, Diane Shaffer, Cheryl Ortt, Carol Hootman, Gayle Hawthorne, Marsha Steed, Bev Krebs, Kathy Gay, Shirley Hendershot, Sandy Mason, Margie Gates, Joyce Ross, Jan Widder, Fanny Truex, Janice Keith, Sandy Moore, Beth Watson, Lois Langell. SECOND ROW: Dick Treat, Loren Powell, Mike VanDusen, John Marshall, Richie Thomson, John Ourant, Bill Lehman, Darla Jones, Sue Addy, Donna Hayes, Phil Miskimen, Fred Sondles, Don Gates, Jack Nicholes, Dave Little, Ron McCormick, Chuck Lahna. THIRD

Here are the wide-awake Seniors as they wait for the bus early in the morning. The hotel is the Sheraton-Park.

The grave of the late President Kennedy.

Waiting to eat at Sholl's Cafeteria.

The Iwo Jima Monument.

Many activities were packed into the four days the Seniors spent in Washington, D.C. We visited such attractions as the Capitol, the White House, the National Library of Congress, The Federal Bureau of Engraving, Arlington National Cemetery, Washington's Monument, and many others. Our special thanks go to Mr. Riffle, and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Ervin. In addition to chaperoning us, they added to the pleasure of the trip by joining in the fun enthusiastically.

Did anyone bring any foot powder?

Graduation

Graduates from the class of 1965 look to the future. In each one's mind is the question: "What is ahead for me?"

Eighty-five Seniors received their diplomas May 31, 1965. Principal Speaker for the commencement exercises was Dr. Ralph Young, Dean of Men of Wooster College. In his address entitled "What Constitutes Success," he stressed the fact that by success he didn't mean economic success, but personal success. Special musical selections were provided by a flute trio composed of Ann Agricola, Debbie DeRing, and Linda Marlatt, and a clarinet quartette made up of Tanda Cox, Rita Phillips, Robin Rice, and Sue Miller.

The advisors, Mr. Riffle, Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Swigert, helped with the last minute details, and gave words of encouragement for the procession.

Down, two, three, four

At the right, Tony Getchey receives a certificate from Commander W. D. Garrigues of the U. S. N. Tony was chosen as a principal candidate for the Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps.

Richie Thomson, Lois Langell, David Vogel, Mr. Hackenbracht

Three of the scholarship winners receive their awards from Mr. John Hackenbracht, President of the Citizens Scholarship Foundation.
